Press Release

Village Acknowledges Frankfort Youth Commission Members

There are currently 35 young people in the Frankfort Youth Commission, but after this summer, seven members will be moving onto college to begin a new chapter in their lives. Brian Bierig, MaryKate Monahan, Jennifer Talent, Tiffany Shih, Allison Carlson, Katie Brennan, and Alex Moler, have been actively involved in the Frankfort Youth Commission beginning in junior high and all through high school. They have participated in all Youth Commission projects, volunteered at Village of Frankfort events, such as "Movies on the Green", "Winter on the Green", the Old Plank Trail 5K Run/Walk and the Frankfort fishing derby, as well as performed babysitting duties for the Chamber of Commerce during Midnight Madness. They have acted as role models in the community, as well as for new Youth Commission members.

"I have had the pleasure of knowing and working with each of these young adults for several years. Their enthusiasm and eagerness to be involved with the community and its activities is a testament to their character. I know that all of them will continue to grow in their leadership roles as they pursue new avenues," commented Frankfort Youth Commission Coordinator, Chris Moler.

"Frankfort is extremely fortunate to have an organization such as the Youth Commission contribute to our community. The future of any community is its youth, and the example that these young people, and the entire Youth Commission group, continues to set should make all of us proud," commented Frankfort's Mayor Jim Holland.
